

Julia A Heintz

3500 S. Sangamon #409 Chicago, IL 60609

julieheintz@gmail.com

<http://julieheintz.weebly.com/>

Objective	Obtain a position in the educational field to use my scientific training, athletic knowledge, and interpersonal skills
Education	Michigan State University, December 2013 Masters of Arts, Educational Technology	East Lansing, MI
	Dominican University, 2002 Bachelor of Science, Biology/Chemistry	River Forest, IL
	Université de Paris, le Sorbonne, 2001 Certificat de Langue	Paris, France
Teaching Experience	Thornton Fractional North High School (2013-current) -Taught Physics, Chemistry & Principles of Chemistry -Integrated flipped lessons using technology in classroom	Calumet City, IL
	Schweinfurt High School, DoDDS (2011-2013) -Taught Biology to ninth through twelfth graders -Taught Physics Applications -Taught volleyball, basketball, and softball to varsity athletes -Assisted athletes seeking college scholarships -Performed various clerical duties -Was Public Affairs Officer for the school -Created press releases about activities at the high school	Schweinfurt, Germany
	Thornton Fractional North High School (2007-2011) -Taught Biology/Physics/Anatomy & Physiology -Taught Physical Science/Chemistry/Honors Physics -Taught basketball and softball to varsity athletes -Oversaw varsity and lower level teams	Calumet City, IL
	St. Francis de Sales High School, Head Softball Coach (2004-2006) -Led team to Elite Eight in 2004 and 2005 -Assisted athletes seeking out college opportunities	Chicago, IL
Additional	National Science Teachers Association (2010-2013) International Committee Member	Washington, DC
	National Science Teachers Association (2008-2009) New Teacher/Astellas Fellow	Washington, DC
	Illinois High School Association (2006) Softball Advisory Committee Member	Bloomington, IL
	Illinois Coaches' Association (2004-2008) Softball Board Member Banquet Program Chairman 2 time "Coach of the Year" Recipient	Bloomington, IL
References	Available Upon Request	